When you carve a face in a tree in the middle of Appalachia you'll say it's mine, sap leaking golden from the irises like the water in the penny fountain I still haven't heard back from One day they'll bury you there and I can't even be mad at you for it Tonight I'll fall asleep praying to someone I don't even believe in anymore, Dear God, make me a river, make me a highway Let us be together in a spirit of prayer. "Dear God, let ...

"Dear God, let some word that is heard be Yours Amen" Our sermon for today is based around a single question: "What is the best prayer?" Now, I don't want to give anything away, but I have to admit that I don't know the definitive answer to this question I mean, mathematically speaking there's got to be a kind of prayer that's the best, just like there's got to be a Sid Roth has spent over 40 years researching the strange ...

The doctor said to us, "You know, Ana" They pulled me aside and said, "If he doesn't get better and turn a corner soon, you're going to have to go back to the States" So I went into the little kitchenette and I prayed My prayer wasn't filled with faith I said, "Dear God, what am I going to do?" I said, "God, show me what to do Help me
