Surviving A Relationship Break-Up - Top 20 Strategies

A break-up is often accompanied by a wide variety of powerful and negative feelings including sadness, anger, confusion, resentment, jealousy, fear and regret, to mention a few. If you try to ignore or suppress these feelings, you will likely only prolong the normal grieving process, and sometimes get totally stuck in it. Healthy coping means both identifying these feelings and allowing

The final stages of capillary break-up of polymer solutions

The capillary break-up of a polymer solution evolves via a series of stages. After the initial instability a long-lived cylindrical filament is formed, which thins exponentially in time, while the flow is purely extensional. During the final stages of the thinning process, at which the polymers are stretched sufficiently for the filament to become unstable to a Rayleigh-Plateau-like
