The life and work of poet and broadcaster Louis MacNeice

"Oddly enough, nobody told me that MacNeice was a local man and it was only at university that I learnt the poet had grown up in Carrickfergus, across the Belfast Lough from where I spent my own Holywood childhood" Terence Brown "No one else, I thought, had tackled the inheritances of Ulster with a comparable power and pungency

Poems for Responsibility "The Responsibility Poem" by ...

But Nobody told Anybody that we are aware of, That he would be in charge of seeing it was taken care of And Nobody took it on himself to follow through, And do what Everybody thought that Somebody would do When what Everybody needed so did not get done at all,

Everybody was complaining that Somebody dropped the ball Anybody then could see it was an awful crying shame, And Everybody ...
