THE WRETCHED OF THE EARTH by Frantz Fanon

Not so very long ago, the earth numbered two thousand million inhabitants: five hundred million men, and one thousand five hundred million natives The former had the Word; the others had the use of it Between the two there were hired kinglets, overlords, and a bourgeoisie, sham from beginning to end, which served as go-betweens In the colonies the truth stood naked, but the citizens of the

Nor silver nor gold hath obtained my redemption - Nor ...

Nor riches of earth could have saved my poor soul; The blood of the cross is my only foundation, The death of my Saviour now maketh me whole I am redeemed, but not with silver; I am bought, but not with gold; Bought with a pricethe blood of Jesus, Precious price of love untold Nor silver nor gold hath obtained my redemption, The guilt on my conscience too heavy had grown; The blood of the

The Richest Man In Babylon

All of its riches were man-made Babylon possessed just two natural resources—a fertile soil and water in the river With one of the greatest engineering accomplishments of this or any other day, Babylonian engineers diverted the waters from the river by means of dams and immense irrigation canals Far out across that arid valley went these canals to pour the life giving waters over the

10. Earthly Wealth, Riches, and Anxiety

The first directive from the Lord is that we are not to store up treasures on earth All worldly riches are transient and disappear amid moth, rust, and thieves The Lord's positive command is to lay up treasures in heaven where moth and rust will never destroy them, and thieves will never steal them These commands are counter to the ethics of the 21 st century, where materialism reigns and
