The 'Golden Age' of Women in Medieval London 39 husband after marriage 15 If goods were stolen from a married woman, the couple had to make a joint plea for their recovery, or the husband might act on his own In the same way a bill of trespass which alleged assault upon a married woman had to be by joint bill of the husband and wife, affirming the wrong done to the ...

SERMON REFERENCE: Scripture Reference

the golden age by the preaching of the Gospel, then Jesus will come again In the eighteenth and nineteenth century, that was somewhat popular, but you won't find many post-millennialists around today because rather than their theory of the world getting better and better, the world is getting, like the Bible teaches, worse and worse And we're going deeper and deeper into sin ...

Marine Paintings from the Dutch Golden Age

Golden Age (fig 2) In this large and impressive painting, Cuyp depicted a fleet of Dutch warships, yachts, and ferryboats carrying thirty thousand soldiers who had assembled as a show of force prior to the Treaty of Münster that ended the Dutch war of independence against Spain (1568-1648) Despite the omnipresence of water, it became a subject of Dutch artists only at ...

Golden Ages, Red Herrings and - Leeds Beckett University

Golden Age is represented not by a 'real life' police officer but by the fictional lead of a TV police show, Dixon of Dock Green Over time, Dixon of Dock Green became a synonym for the British Bobby, and by extension, in the words of Barbara Weinberger (1995), for, 'the best police in the world' Whilst it would be wrong to conceive of the Golden Age of British Policing as ending
