An article by Professor C. E. Andrews in Modern Language

The Late Lancashire Witches was printed in 1634 as the joint work of Thomas Heywood and Richard Brome But the story of the play was based, in part, upon an account, published in 1613, of the doings of certain Lancashire women, of whom twelve had suffered death as witches in the previous year; and it is possible that Heywood was the author of a play much earlier than that put upon the stage
